

A Fisherman Called Andrew

William R. Miller

ST. ANDREW 7.6.7.6.D

William R. Miller
harm. Donald Pettit

1. A fish - er - man called An - drew once heard the Mas - ter's voice. He dropped his nets to
2. T'was An - drew saw a small child a - mong the hun - gry crowd, whose hum - ble loaves and
3. The gen - tiles came to Je - sus but found them - selves ig - nored till An - drew in - ter -
4. And when his Mas - ter part - ed, Saint An - drew car - ried on, im - part - ing hope in fol - low, his life turned with a choice. O may we be so trust - ing so fish - es a mi - ra - cle al - lowed. O may we have such vi - sion to ced - de and brought them to his Lord. O give us such com - pas - sion to pla - ces his friends had ne - ver gone. O may we have such fire, Lord, to con - fi - dent in You that when You call we has - ten to what you'd have us do.

6

11
see in oth - ers' eyes the gifts they have to of - fer, the pro - mise of sur prise.
move past what we know, and risk - ing all, to fol - low where You would have us go.