When no-bo - dy a - round me seems to 14

want to lis - ten to me, when I've tried ev-ry - thing that I know how to say: "Please, I need you to 21

hear me, won't you lis - ten to my sto - ry," but the peo - ple a - round me turn a - way

26

There's some-bo - dy who's al - ways near me who wants to hear what I say. God's the one who will al - ways lis - ten to me when - ev - er I pray.

32

And al - though when I o - pen up my eyes I can't see an - y -

38

one, I know that my prayers have all been lis-tened to, and I no-tice a qui-et kind of peace down deep

2x To Coda

in-side me like some-bo - dy had just said, "I love you." I love know

52

peo - ple say that God's far a - bove me, but God

60

D.S. al Coda

feels like the arms of peo - ple who love me. like some-bo - dy had just said, "I love you." and that's the way that God speaks to me and you
